Forecast for Tuesday 10 Nov 2020

Weather: There will be a good deal of sunshine to start the day across the region but cloudier conditions will soon develop across Skye and Lochalsh. The sunshine will last longer in the north and east of the region though there could be some fog in the kyles and glens. Heavy rain will reach Skye from late evening.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: High through much of the morning. Decreasing from the south by lunchtime, low during the afternoon in the west.

Visibility: Good through the morning, occasionally poor into the afternoon.
